

"GO ANYWHERE, DO ANYTHING"

(words of preparation for members of the Friends Ambulance Service)

Voices from the Friends Relief Service

A national touring exhibition of the Quaker Service Memorial Trust

Thornborough Hall, Leyburn

5-6 October

10.00- 4.00

free entry

also showing

portraits from the 'Echo Chamber' exhibition

sound installation and photography

by Fiona Kam Meadley, Dominic Thomas and Ruth Davey shown in Euston, London in 2016

including the story of John Leyland of Bainbridge and a soundtrack of interviews as recorded by the Imperial War Museum Sound Archives

This exhibition is part of Richmondshire Remembers:
a series of events being organised during 2018 to commemorate the end of WW1.