

The last taboo? Talking about dying

Join Emma and James to gain confidence in talking about death and dying. Increase your awareness on these subjects and be better prepared for conversations in your community.

Themes covered include:

- why some people don't talk about dying and why they should ;
- how we find meaning, purpose and values and how they matter at the end of life;
- listening & communication;
- what we could do differently when we talk about dying?

Where? Leyburn Methodist Church Hall
When? Wednesday November 2nd
What time? 10am to 1pm

Bring your lunch and stay and chat together

Who is it for? Anyone who wants to be able to talk more openly about dying, death and a meaningful end to life.

How to book your place – email ballantynej@methodistchurch.org.uk or register here <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-last-taboo-leyburn-tickets-402632583897>

The Methodist Church
Learning Network
North East

Leyburn Methodist Hall, Market Place, Leyburn DL8 5AT
Methodist.org.uk/NE